

Experience the Benefits of the Enhanced Catylist Platform

This modern platform is used by commercial real estate professionals across North America to share information, research properties, market listings, prospect, and do business. Coming soon, you will be able to experience the benefits of this new platform:

-  A property-centric system; one property record for active listings, sales/leases, historical property data
-  Seamless integration to www.CommercialExchange.com, Moody's national public marketplace
-  Enhanced listing traffic and lead generation
-  Robust geospatial property search
-  Tax & Assessor information
-  New broadcast email capabilities
-  Advanced demographics
-  New and improved reports
-  Shareable broker/agent listings profile

Moody's Analytics Catylist is here to help
